GRAND JURY REPORT

To the Honorable L. C. Corban, Circuit Judge:

We the Grand Jury beg leave to make this our final report. We have been in session seven days, we have examined ninety five witnesses and have returned five true bills.

We have examined the County Poor House and find it to be well kept and the inmates appear to be well taken care of, in all respects it appears to be well managed.

We have examined the County Jail and the County Court House and these two buildings appear to be maintained and in good condition, except there are several rooms in the Court House where books and records are stored and these records and books are not in such shape to be usable, it is recommended that they be put in shape for use and neatly stored. We find some of the rooms that are not well kept and we find that there is no fire escape for the jury sleeping room quarters on the third floor. We recommend that an adequate fire escape be provided.

We have examined the office of the Sheriff and Tax Collector, the office of the County Superintendent of the Clerk of the Chancery and Circuit Court and we find these offices to be in what appears to be good condition. We are not prepared by experience or education to examine the records maintained in these offices and determine whether they are accurately kept or whether the accounts for which the officials are responsible are true and correct.

We recommend that the Board of Supervisors keep an accurate list or inventory of all county property, and that all road equipment be inventoried by serial numbers and description so that all material may be accurately accounted for at all times.

We further recommend that a careful audit be made each month upon the county funds and that the disbursements made by the county be accurately charged to accounts in accordance with the annual budgets, and that the proceedings of the Board of Supervisors be published in some newspaper each month giving the expenditures as authorized by the Board of Supervisors, and that the practice of using claimed numbers in such publications be discontinued and that the names and amounts of the claims and the services for which paid be published.

Respectfully submitted,
EDWARD A. FAYARD

SALVAGE PAPER DRIVE

The Salvage Paper Drive is on and the boys of Scout Troop No. 203 are off to make it a great success. Mrs. John Bell is heading the drive but the men behind the gun are the Scouts. They will take care of your paper when you have assembled it and THURSDAY of each week is pick up day. Your paper will be called for on that day so please have it in a convenient place when the Scouts call.

All funds realized from the collection will go to the Civic Center Fund and will be credited to the Scouts as their contribution to the fund.

There are so many reasons why we should salvage paper for this cause but one major reason is better the community should support the Civic Center, which will stand as a memorial to the boys of Hancock County who fought in this war. A minor reason is that we in this way get rid of a lot of waste paper which would otherwise clutter up our houses or be burned.

Cooperate with Mrs. Bell and the Scouts and contribute to the War Memorial.

New Marble Liturgical Altar To Be Consecrated September 28

Among the outstanding events to take place in Bay St. Louis, Miss., in connection with the commemoration of the 25th anniversary of the founding of St. Augustine's Seminary will be the consecration of the new marble Liturgical altar by the Most Reverend Richard O. Gerow, Bishop of Natchez, on September 28, at 8:30 o'clock Friday morning.

One project in connection with the jubilee is the completion of the Seminary chapel to meet the requirements of Liturgical functions for the large number of students. The chapel, a beautiful red-brick structure, was erected in 1936. For the completion of the chapel new altars were necessary. The changes now taking place involve a new marble Liturgical altar and a tabernacle which is free-standing, around which it will be possible to place a canopy, a silk covering which denotes the Presence of the Blessed Sacrament. Above the tabernacle, and to the rear of it will be a large Crucifixion group, including Christ on the Cross, with the Blessed Virgin on one side, and St. John on the other.

Beside the new high altar, there will be 6 other altars each dedicated to a Saint, who is some way or other especially connected with the seminary training of students for the priestly life. The high altar will be consecrated. The second and third altars, also of marble will be dedicated to the Blessed Virgin and St. Joseph respectively. Altars will be dedicated likewise to St. Augustine, the patron of the Seminary; St. Theresa of the Child Jesus; St. Peter Claver; and Blessed Martin de Porres. These last four altars will be installed as soon as they arrive.

The renovation of the chapel offers an opportunity to have uniformity. The sanctuary will remain the same size as before so as to carry out the various sacred functions, particularly the ordinations to the various orders, all of which take place in the seminary chapel.

The high altar and the two side altars are constructed entirely of 7 kinds of imported and domestic marble. The mensa, or the table of the altar, is of Minnesota Pink Kasota marble while the front vertical strips are of Montana Rose Trabertine. Columns of Alicante marble, from Africa, support the mensa. The insert in front of the altar proper are inlaid with Red Numidian marble, and the decorations and monograms are of Bianco marble, from Africa, support the mensa. The altars have been jubilee gifts from many benefactors of the Seminary. The Commission for the Colored Missions among the Colored People and the Indians also gave a large donation for the completion of the chapel.

When all this work is completed, the Seminary will have the most precious memento possible of its 25 years of service to Church, the diocese of Natchez, and the Negro Apostolate in the United States.

WE MUST

The People of Hancock County are typical Americans. They are great procrastinators. They love to let things roll along in its usual manner. To live their lives as they see fit, and to let the other fellow follow the same course. It must be said to their credit, however that as and when the MUST sign goes up they are ready and willing to fall in line and push to the end, to accomplish what they set out to do.

It was pointed out that there were possibilities to locate some industry in our section, if we would work towards that end.

Realizing that the efforts of any one person, or of many persons, working individually, would not bring results, a group of business men of Bay St. Louis met informally last Friday night at the Bay Hi Auditorium for the purpose of devising ways and means of reactivating the Chamber of Commerce.

These men have the interest of Hancock County at heart. They have seen the MUST sign. They see the necessity of a Civic Organization through which the people of Hancock County may speak and work with a united front for a common cause—THE BUILDING OF HANCOCK COUNTY.

That they will succeed in their efforts to reactivate the Chamber of Commerce is not doubted. The question arises, will it be active for a short period of time, and then will interest lag, and will it again fall apart. This depends entirely on the membership. If they become nonchalant, procrastinate, and assume the attitude of leaving it to the other fellow to do, it certainly will not succeed, nor will Hancock County progress. If everyone will assume the responsibility placed upon him and feel that he has a job to do and that it is his duty to do it, success will certainly crown their efforts.

Another important question arises. How will it be financed? The members pay annual dues and by this method the necessary finances are secured. In addition to this the political subdivisions of the County are authorized to contribute to the maintenance of the Chamber of Commerce. Unquestionably, they should respond to this call and should lend every assistance possible; but as stated by the temporary Chairman, Mr. Lucien M. Gex, "An organization of this type should not be dependent on a political body for its existence." With this statement we are in thorough accord. We feel that it should be absolutely independent and be capable of carrying on whether it receives any assistance from a governmental agency or not.

This can be made possible, if, as and when the Chamber of Commerce once again becomes a reality, every public spirited person in Hancock County becomes a member, not only to lend financial assistance, but to lend his individual efforts to an organization that can accomplish much.

With the development of Hancock County uppermost in our minds and hearts and with a determination to succeed, we MUST.

CARELESSNESS

OUR attention has been called to the careless manner in which certain individuals are shooting high powered rifles along the water front and in the rivers and bayous in this section. We are told that this past week end someone, who probably should be wearing ears about 8 inches long and who instead of talking should be braying, was in the river shooting a rifle, and that bullets were ricocheting in and around several boats. We wonder if this person has ever thought that perhaps what he considers a little fun may result in the death of someone. That his carelessness may make a widow or orphans of some good woman and her family. It certainly should be possible for a man to go fishing and relax from his business cares, without being imbued with the thought that perhaps he will be found dead in his boat. A death caused by the carelessness of some indiscreet person.

There is a general statute covering the use of firearms, but we doubt if it would cover their usage and indiscriminate firing in the streams of this County. However, we have never suggested as yet that people should take the law into their own hands, but in this matter we think that the proper cure for such jackasses who have utter disregard for the welfare of their fellowmen, is to catch him and to give him a beating to within an inch of his life.

A little of this cure would probably teach him that life is precious and that acts of this type are not going to be tolerated.

It's a little old and a bit sad to realize it, but whiskey and automobile driving seldom mix well.

A forest fire is a dangerous thing—so be careful when you are in the woods and see that you don't start a blaze.

When you run across an individual who knows it all, the best way to enjoy yourself is to keep quiet and let him talk.

Never try to earn a fortune by a smart investment—especially when some unknown salesman is telling you how to manage your money.

Those who seek the truth must first establish an unbiased mind and divest it of personal interests. No wonder truth is so elusive.

As long as the average citizen is willing to make the possession of money the test of a man's importance, the country will have gangsters and rackets in full bloom.

A. & G. THEATRE SUN.-MON., TUESDAY "BILLY ROSE'S DIAMOND HORSESHOE"

In Technicolor—Acclaimed
Screen's Most Spectacular
Musical Hit

From Hollywood comes news that 20th Century-Fox, the acknowledged leader in the field of sensational musicals, has come through with a new one that outstrips them all in spectacle and splendor and is bound to be acclaimed as one of the top musicals of all time. Starring Betty Grable and Dick Haymes with a brilliant supporting cast, studded with scintillating new song hits, and photographed in gorgeous, Technicolor film, "Billy Rose's Diamond Horseshoe," will be at the A. & G. Theatre Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

Set against the gay and glittering background of one of the world's largest and most famous restaurants, "Billy Rose's Diamond Horseshoe" tells a story that carries a deep emotional appeal: the story of a father's ambition for his son, for the son's revolt, and of a tangled love story by a boy's love for a girl. Glamorous Betty Grable as "Bonnie," the girl with the loveliest legs on Broadway, will be seen in a new kind of role for her. For while Betty sings and dances in the style that has made her Hollywood's No. 1 musical star, her heretofore unexploited dramatic acting ability is called upon to its fullest extent.

Dick Haymes, sensational singing star whose performance in "Irish Eyes Are Smiling," sent him, to the top in movie musicals, plays the romantic lead opposite Betty Grable. And he has given such an outstanding performance in "Billy Rose's Diamond Horseshoe" that Darryl F. Zanuck has already named him star of the forthcoming "State Fair."

Heading the outstanding featured cast are: ace screen comedian, Phil Silvers; William Gaxton, Broadway idol and musical comedy star; Beatrice Kay, the celebrated "Gay Nineties Girl"; Carmen Cavallara, sensational piano stylist; and others.

Bonded for the top-of-the-hit-parade ratings are the six new songs, "I Wish I Knew," "The More I See You," "Acapulco," and others.

Stay At Home—See Him Sooner

The quickest way to see your son or husband being returned from overseas, is to remain at home.

That was the sage advice offered today by the Navy Department to relatives who are anxious to welcome their "boys" coming back to the States for release.

In the first place, if relatives travel to debarkation ports it is highly improbable that they will even see their sailors because the Navy demobilization plan calls for returning men to separation centers in their own Naval Districts. In consequence men will not be free to visit their families at coastal ports, but will move without delay to their own districts.

Secondly, travel by dependents will only crowd the already overloaded transportation system and hamper the orderly operation of discharge.

And last, living accommodations in coastal ports are not and will not be available.

ORTE THEATRE SUNDAY AND MONDAY "THE CLOCK"

M-G-M's Romantic Story
With Judy Garland and Robert Walker

A love story, pure and simply delightful "The Clock" represents another directorial triumph for Vincente Minnelli, whose "Meet Me in St. Louis" warmed the hearts of America. Just as in his previous film, the director has concentrated on tender, love-filled, laugh-filled incident rather than narrative and the result verifies Minnelli's mastery of those little real-life caprices that raise a film above run-of-the-mill Hollywood product. The story can be told in a single sentence: a lonely soldier on a two-day pass meets a girl they fall in love, marry and he off to war. This theme, oft-told in films, has been endowed with a tone of freshness and it will be highly enjoyed by young and old alike.

Judy Garland and Robert Walker have never been better. As the principals in a small featured cast, they dig their way into the audience's heart. Maudlin sentiment is noticeably absent. There are some heart-tugs and a good quota of laughs, but the true appeal of the film is that which causes the onlooker to nudge his neighbor and say, "Isn't that a fact?" Keenan Wynn, although only on the screen for a five-minute sequence, contributes a gem of a drunk act that is good for more belly-laughs per minute than this reviewer can remember. James Gleason's portrayal of a good-natured milk truck driver stacks up with any he has ever done—no mean accomplishment, and Lucile Gleason is splendid as his wife. And with all this, the audience is treated to a liberal education on the greatest metropolitan in the world, New York City.

Col. Malcolm Byrne Takes Command

Col. Malcolm Byrne took command of District No. 7, 4th Service Command at Jackson yesterday succeeding Col. John A. Blount who will soon retire from the Army.

Col. Blount, who has commanded the District for almost four years, is well known in Mississippi. Prior to his tour at Jackson, he commanded an Infantry Regiment at Camp Shelby.

Col. Byrne in succeeding him, will take charge of Army Recruiting and the retaining of State Guard Units throughout Mississippi. His arrival here was coincident with an expanded program to spur enlistments in the Regular Army.

"Throughout the War soldiers from Mississippi have distinguished themselves in every theatre of operations," Col. Byrne said. "I am sure now that men are needed to serve America throughout the world as Guardians of Victory, many Mississippians will be among the first to answer the call."

Col. Byrne came here from New York where he has been supervising the equipping of units for overseas duty. He has had almost twenty-eight years of Army Service, having entered in 1917 as a member of the South Dakota National Guard.

Believe It or Not

A ton of average freight by railroad moves one mile for less than a postal card; a passenger one mile for much less than a letter.

Surprising, but true! The railroad freight rate for an average ton per mile hauled is less than one cent; and the rate per passenger per mile is an average of about two cents.

The wear and tear on shoe leather for a mile walk would probably exceed the rail rate for an average ton of freight or a passenger for the same distance.

When some one says "high freight and passenger rates," consider the above facts. There's not a better bargain in the whole world than in U. S. railroad service.

Today, with high operating costs, freight and passenger rates per mile average 16% and 46% less, respectively, than 25 years ago.

Railroads are large, mass transportation agencies, efficiently operated as free and private enterprise, in a public service essential both in peace and war.

NUTRITIONAL ILLS

TAKING FARM TOLL

So-called "deficiency diseases" seem to be playing an increasingly prominent part in causing livestock losses these days.

Cropping over a period of years has depleted soils of many mineral elements important to livestock health. Also, because farm animals are dependent on their owners for rations, nutritional deficiencies often occur when the owners fail to provide proper balance. Vitamin deficiencies rank equally with minerals as causes of poor health, unprofitable gains, and premature deaths.

Vitamin A found in green forage and grasses is probably the most essential for animals. Livestock deprived of vitamin A develop blindness, sterility, and water logging of the tissues. Vitamin E is no longer considered so important, because many farm animals synthesize it from bacteria in their digestive tracts.

Vitamin C, the anti-scurvy factor of orange juice, is often related to functional sterility of cattle and horses. Vitamin D, the sunlight vitamin, is very important. Animals kept indoors and fed no sun-cured hay may develop rickets and easily broken limbs because of vitamin D deficiency, especially when there is also a shortage of lime and phosphorus.

All too often, livestock owners mistake deficiency diseases for common livestock diseases, or for sicknesses caused by internal parasites. Whenever animals that are free from parasites and from germ diseases fail to make proper gains a mineral or vitamin deficiency should be suspected.

Practically all of these deficiency diseases can be cured if they are diagnosed and treated properly. However, accurate diagnosis is almost impossible for the untrained person, and in cases like this should be left to the judgment and experience of a trained veterinarian.

What Discharge Buttons Mean

What does the discharge button mean to you? It says that America will not and must not forget the service rendered by those who wear them—but will strive always to make sure that their service was not in vain. A service well done for the good old U. S. is what it means to the local boards of selective service and their reemployment committees.

Did you know that 41,000 men and women from Mississippi have already been released from service in the armed forces? Did you know that 30,000 of these have been back to the local boards for contact and information? These fine patriotic citizens of the selective service system with their clerks, in every county who placed nearly all these men in service are now pleased that they can render advice and assistance to the returning veterans. It is a real pleasure to help him get his old job back or a new one if he wants it, and also to tell him what else awaits him in the new post-war world, because they can and will tell him what he wants to know about his community.

Colonel L. W. Long, state director of selective service, says that it is most agreeable and pleasant to all of us that we who have placed into service more than 200,000 can now offer them every assistance in their readjustment to civilian life as they are discharged. September we will see some 40,000 veterans from Mississippi discharged, while more than 100,000 will be discharged between October 1, 1945 and July 1, 1946.

At the same time, the state director added, it will require the induction or voluntary enlistment of 10,000 young men 18 to 26 years of age, all its precious rolling equipment.

Therefore, it is just as important today, as at any time during the war, to keep your car in first-class operating condition; safe to drive, and with its re-sale value maintained at a high point. America needs all its precious rolling equipment.

Well aware of the fact, Ford dealers have issued a word of caution to all car owners. "Keep your car safe to drive, keep its re-sale value high." This is sound advice. The motorist who neglects his car in the false expectation that he personally will get a new car soon may find himself without precious transportation long before his new car is available.

FORESTRY

It is said that the only man now living who witnessed the birth of American forestry is former Governor Gifford Pinchot of Pennsylvania, now eighty years of age and still going all-out for the propagation and conservation of American forests. It is believed that the first rail car shipment of lumber from Mississippi was in 1882 by the late J. J. White of McComb, father of former Governor Hugh White. It is estimated that in 1944 there were shipped from Mississippi 173,792 rail cars of forestry products. It is also shown by a recent release of figures that in four and a half years, ending December 31, 1944, forestry products shipped out of Mississippi had a value of $559,478,128. In 1891 George Vanderbilt allowed the use of 7,000 acres of his North Carolina estate to demonstrate reforestation. Today in the United States more than 200 million acres of land once denuded of its timber has been replanted and is growing trees. State Forester Albert A. Leggett, located in Jackson, is rendering fine service to the state in acquainting the people with the vast need and tremendous value of growing trees.

CONGRESSMAN COLMER

Congressman W. M. Colmer of the Sixth Mississippi District does not feel depressed over the post-war situation. Mr. Colmer is chairman of a committee in Congress which is charged with the duty of recommending plans for employment and economic reconstruction for the postwar period. He thinks, according to a recent public statement, that after a few months of slight depression the country will swing back into peace-time production in a big way and that the greater part of unemployment will be taken up in tremendous demand for civilian production. Mr. Colmer points out that the American people now have more than 140 billion dollars in liquid savings, and with that substantial backlog there should be no difficulty for the future. Mr. Colmer has been spending some time inspecting conditions in Europe in order that he may have first-hand knowledge of the overseas situation.

LABOR DAY

Labor Day was Monday of this week, always the first Monday in September. It is one of the most universally celebrated of all the holidays. Labor Day is a legal holiday in all of the states, and in the District of Columbia, Porto Rico, Hawaii and Alaska. It was first celebrated by the Knights of Labor in New York in 1882. Colorado was the first state to make it a legal holiday, in 1887. Other states followed until all were included, and Congress applied it to the District of Columbia and the territories. All over the country it is labor's red letter day.

GEN. WAINWRIGHT

All over the country there was rejoicing over the release of Gen. Johathan M. Wainwright from a Japanese prison. The distinguished soldier could have escaped from Corregidor by sacrificing many of his men, or leaving them at the mercy of the Japs; but, fine soldier and gentleman that he was, he refused to leave his men and took the consequences. General Wainwright was a prisoner of the Japs for three years and three months. He was released in time to go to Tokyo and witness the formal surrender of the Japanese army. General Wainwright is a native of the city of Walla Walla, in the state of Washington. The Mississippi Legislature at its 1944 session authorized the erection of a monument in Jackson in honor of General Wainwright. It is understood that funds will be solicited at an early date for this patriotic purpose.

Long before his troubles vanish in her warm embrace... long before he sees home again, he can be there—if you will help him.

The first thought of thousands of weary men, now landing in the South, is to rush to the telephone and call home.

What a disappointment if they find all long distance lines busy and they can't get their calls through.

Your telephone company is doing all that is humanly possible and you can help, too, by skipping all unnecessary calls—and by cutting short the essential ones.

If you find this inconvenient, just remember what that first call home means to returning service men.

A bill to stimulate volunteer enlistments and reenlistments in the Regular Military and Naval Establishments has been introduced in the House of Representatives by Representative Andrew J. May, Chairman of the House Committee on Military Affairs, and approved by the Committee.

To Pay for A Costly War

—every source of tax revenue becomes important.

Now that the war is over most Americans turn to the problems of conversion and peace. But we must still pay for the most costly war in history. President Truman has said there can be no immediate tax reductions. Every source of tax revenue is important, especially the larger sources of tax income. Beer is a top-bracket revenue producer, as revealed by the following facts:

In 1944 the Beverage of Moderation poured $627,458,723 into the Federal Treasury.

It is estimated that an additional $167,000,000 flowed into the treasuries of the 48 states for license fees, excise and other taxes, bringing beer's total tax contribution in the Nation to $794,458,108 for 1944 alone.

Mississippi has collected $8,611,651 in beer taxes since re-legalization in April, 1934. In 1944 alone Mississippi collected $1,808,140 in beer taxes.

Beer is a tax source well worth protecting. It is also a Beverage of Moderation and this Committee is seeing to it that beer is sold only in wholesome surroundings by those who regard their retail beer permits as a privilege they will not abuse.

NATIONAL WAR FUND DRIVE TO START OCTOBER 1ST

To End October 15—Hancock County's Quota Is $3825.00

Mrs. Doris M. Rea, Hancock County Chairman for the National War Fund Drive, announces the dates of the drive for October 1-15 with a county quota of $3825.00.

It is hoped that the people of this county will rally to this call without delay and that the quota will be reached within these dates without the workers being subjected to too strenuous a campaign. Why delay in doing our duty?

Quoting from a letter to All Mississippians from Governor Thomas L. Bailey: "... hundreds of thousands of our military men and women must remain in occupied territory in Europe and in the Pacific area for months to come. With their military objectives achieved, the need of entertainment through such National War Fund Agencies as the U. S. O. will be greater than ever. The fight against famine, pestilence and distress in countries of our allies, who fought for victory with us will be at its most critical stage. And last, but by no means least, we must not neglect our needy at home."

The reason and need for this seventh and last War Fund Drive needs no other argument. But some facts may help us all in understanding just why we as citizens of the greatest country in the world should give and give freely at this time.

The National War Fund is a war emergency organization and is now taking definite steps to liquidate its work and this is the last drive under NWF direction. There are 18 agencies in the NWF now and a year ago there were 22.

Since V-J Day the American Field Service has been eliminated and USO's budget will be cut approximately $10,000,000. However, 52 per cent of the funds raised will go for services to the men in uniform; 42 per cent will cover European, Far Eastern and Refugee Relief; 1 per cent is set aside for administrative and campaign costs and the remainder will go into an emergency fund.

Some of the USO's in the United States will be eliminated but USO clubs will continue to serve in fur-rough areas and near the 150 Army, Navy, and Marine General Hospitals.

USO Camp Shows have increased at the request of the Army and will give service in Europe, the Pacific and will increase to go into Japan and other occupation areas in the Far-East. USO Camp Shows play weekly to more than 2,000,000 in occupation zones, hospitals and evacuation centers, in camps and stations at home, wherever the Army asks for such services. Even this falls short of the minimum asked for by the Army and Navy.

Space will not allow more detailed information but there is an almost endless chain of member agencies that this fund will service. Let us each and all keep fresh in our minds the men who have met with cruel treatment, the men who have lost limbs and eyesight, men who are coming home invalids for the time being and ask ourselves "What is our duty to them?"

"It is not charity that we should fulfill our obligations to the peoples

SLAUGHTER CONTROLS SUSPENDED

Controls over how much livestock can be slaughtered and where the meat may be shipped have been suspended by OPA, it was announced by the War Price and Rationing Board.

This action was taken on the recommendation of Secretary of Agriculture, Clinton P. Anderson, and meat rationing is not affected, he added.

"The OPA slaughter control program was initiated to increase the amount of livestock slaughtered in federally inspected plants by decreasing the amount of slaughter in non-federally inspected plants."

"There will be no immediate effect on meat rationing."

He added that there has been "marked improvement" in the civilian meat supply during recent months but that it is still not sufficient to assure the best distribution without the help of rationing controls.

we have liberated. It is just good horse sense. It is the cheapest way out of a bad mess and the only humane thing a Christian people can do."

Remember the final federated drive for funds for National War Fund member agencies is designed to provide funds for the operation of some agencies to liquidation and for the operation of others up to December 1, 1945.

The goal for 15 months financing of the agencies is $115,000,000 the amount originally intended to cover cost for 12 months only. The quota for Mississippi is $780,000. In Hancock County, $3,825. Are we Christians?

With Peace Civilian Can Anticipate New Canned Foods Soon

Now that the postwar era has become a reality with the downfall of Japan, citizens of Hancock County can look forward to dramatic developments in canned foods, many of which were first packaged for the armed forces, according to W. C. Stolk, vice president of the American Can Company.

Mr. Stolk said that the approximately 912,000 cans of food opened annually by residents of the county undoubtedly will be largely increased with the arrival of the new postwar items. It will be no trick at all, he said, for a housekeeper to put together a three or four course meal by making use of canned foods she should shortly find on grocery shelves.

Among the new foods he listed are such items as canned hamburgers, canned bacon, seafood, cocktails and salads in cans, as well as a long list of meats new to a can, among them chicken stew with dumplings, beef and gravy.

Is There any difference in savings banks?

For more than a number of years mutual savings banks in the State of Mississippi have gone thru every cycle of prosperity and depression without ever yet being compelled to tell their depositors, "We are sorry we cannot return your deposits." There is more to a savings bank than safety. There is sound counsel supplied by courteous officers, there is advice to those who have problems pertaining to the building of homes, travel, education, deaths, wills and a hundred and one other things that affect our daily lives.
